PILOTS INVITED TO PILOT SOCIAL AT CAPITAL JET CENTER

CHARLESTON, W.VA. – Civil Air Patrol and Capital Jet Center are proud to offer our general aviation pilots an opportunity to come together and discuss hot topics, changes/updates in regulations, career exploration and other topics of the day.

- WHO: Pilots and others interested in aviation are invited.
- WHAT: A free Pilot Social, hosted by Capital Jet Center and sponsored by Civil Air Patrol.
- WHEN: Thursday, May 23, 2019, from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Capital Jet Center, 300 Eagle Mountain Road, Charleston, West Virginia.
- WHY: The goal is to allow attendees an opportunity to network and form new connections in the general aviation community here in Charleston. Additionally, services offered by Capital Jet Center as well as opportunities and benefits of membership in Civil Air Patrol will be highlighted.

For additional information please contact Debbie Butler-Case, Commander, Charleston Composite Squadron, Civil Air Patrol, 304-389-0556 or visit our website at <http://wv013.cap.gov> or find us on Facebook at WV013.

Weather permitting, a CAP aircraft will be on the ramp for viewing and photo opportunities.

Civil Air Patrol is the Auxiliary of the United States Air Force. CAP has a rich heritage of civilian volunteer service from WWII to 9/11 and continuing today. Put simply, we are citizens aged 12 and up - A vital force that protects Americans in need by responding to disaster. We preserve the values that make our country great by developing young leaders as part of our Cadet Program, helping to ensure our Country's preeminence in aviation through our Aerospace Education program, providing useful services to the Air Force as part of our Emergency Services mission, and so much more.
