UNITED AIRLINES TO RESUME DAILY ORD FLIGHTS FROM CRW IN JULY

Starting July 6th, United Airlines will resume non-stop flights from Yeager Airport (CRW) to Chicago O'Hare International Airport (ORD). United Airlines had limited service on this route to three days per week earlier this year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

“We are very excited to see this flight return to daily service,” said Yeager Airport Director Nick Keller. “We know how important this particular route is to our passengers as ORD is one of the most connected airports in the nation—from there, you can truly go anywhere.”

When booking your flights, please review COVID-19 airline guidelines. Visit yeagerairport.com for additional COVID-19 guidance and notices.
