PRESS RELEASE

YEAGER AIRPORT DESIGNATED GREAT PLACE TO WORK

Yeager Airport is excited to announce it is now a Great Place to Work-Certified company. This certification is awarded based on a survey taken by airport employees. 94 percent of employees said CRW was a great place to work. The national average at a U.S. based company is 59 percent.

“We are honored to receive this certification,” said Yeager Airport Director & CEO Nick Keller. “I am thrilled this award is based solely on employees’ responses. I firmly believe when employees are happy and feel validated about their job, they do their best work.”

Yeager Airport has 89 full-time employees. This certification comes from the company ‘Great Place to Work.’ Yeager Airport can now display the Great Place to Work badge on all platforms and will be listed on the company’s website.

The Central West Virginia Regional Airport Authority has an excellent benefits package to permanent, full-time employees. Health, dental, vision, and life insurance are offered to airport employees. As well as optional long and short-term disability, and tuition reimbursement. Paid holidays, vacation and sick leave, retirement, family scholarship program, company paid employee education, and company paid parental leave are also provided to airport staff.
