YEAGER AIRPORT ANNOUNCES RACHEL URBANSKI AS NEW PUBLIC AFFAIRS SPECIALIST

Yeager Airport, West Virginia's Gateway, announces the selection of Rachel Urbanski as Public Affairs Specialist.

Ms. Urbanski will be responsible for handling day-to-day media and public relations. She will serve as the contact for all media inquiries. Additionally, Ms. Urbanski will assist with implementing the airport's marketing plan, advertising strategy, and communication.

After graduating from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Ms. Urbanski spent nearly a decade working as a reporter and TV Anchor, earning several awards for her work.

"We're incredibly excited to welcome Rachel to CRW during such an exciting time for both the airport and our region," said Yeager Airport Director and CEO Nick Keller. "Her experience will elevate our public outreach efforts to the next level as we plan for the future of Yeager Airport."

For media inquiries, never hesitate to reach out to Ms. Urbanski. She will make herself readily available to request.

About Yeager Airport (CRW): A study done by the West Virginia Aeronautics Commission says Yeager Airport is responsible for nearly 3,000 jobs and has a $225-million economic impact in the state. Yeager Airport is the largest commercial Airport in West Virginia, with service provided by American, Delta, Spirit, and United Airlines. The Airport's Organizational Vision is: "To become the most important economic engine for the state through advances in aviation and education.” Yeager Airport, in conjunction with the West Virginia National Guard, hosts the Home Base Program. The program works to facilitate military ground, tactical, and air training in West Virginia.
